Introduction: Hospitality & Tourism Industry is growing at a phenomenal rate across the globe. Thus, there are plenty of requirements of Human Resources in the Hospitality & Tourism sector world wide. At various forums, in different parts of world, the discussions are ongoing for Human Resources in Hospitality & Tourism Industry. India is also one of the countries of discussion for this burgeoning issue. As per UNWTO Report Hospitality, Catering & Tourism (HCT) is among the world’s top creators of jobs requiring varying degrees of skills and allows for quick entry into the workforce for youth, women and migrant workers. It accounts for 30 per cent of the world’s export services. With regard to the supply chain in the sector, one job in the core HCT industry indirectly generates roughly 1.5 additional jobs in the related economy. The UNWTO is expecting the sector’s global economy to provide 296 million jobs in 2019.

The Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India reports that the demand on manpower is huge in Hospitality & Tourism Sector in India. Also it has been reported that there is a huge gap between the demand and supply of manpower for Hospitality & Tourism Industry. And the gap is proposed to be met by (i) periodic assessment of the skilled manpower in hospitality & tourism industry and formulation of policy and strategy, (ii) strengthening and expanding the institutional infrastructure for training and education, (iii) steering and regulating the academic efforts of Institutes, and (iv) Training of aspiring and existing service providers, including certification of their skills.

Human Resource is probably one of the most important issues that can make or mar the organization of tomorrow. Education plays a pivotal role in developing Human resources. With this background, Institute of Hotel and Tourism Management proposes to organize one day National Seminar on 'Hospitality & Tourism Education in India: Issues & Challenges' on Monday, April 22, 2013 in which executives from Tourism and Hospitality Industry and academia from different universities and Institutes will participate. The main purpose of the seminar is to have an effective interaction between academicians, Industry Professionals and Students of Hospitality & Tourism Management for real exposure of the participants about the latest scenario and also to have a platform for debate, discuss and come up with suggestions on theme of seminar.
