Sir,/Madam,

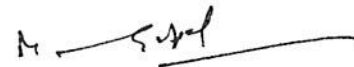

Permission to seek admission in another P.G Course

I invite your kind attention to Clause-3 of the Important Points at page 32 of the Information Brochure 2013-14 which provides that "a student who has passed a post-graduate examination shall not ordinarily be allowed to seek admission to PG courses in another subject on regular basis. However, Vice-Chancellor may relax the rule on genuine grounds".

As a matter of policy, the Vice-Chancellor has ordered that Heads of the Department concerned must satisfy himself/herself that an applicant willing to seek admission in another post-graduate course shall be required to produce a certificate from the Head of the Department/Institute from where the previous post-graduate course has been passed stating that his/her conduct had been good and that there was nothing adverse against him/her during the course of study. Such a certificate submitted with the Department/Institute concerned in which the applicant wishes to seek admission will be enough to meet the requirement of seeking his permission in individual case(s).

You are, therefore, requested to take action accordingly.

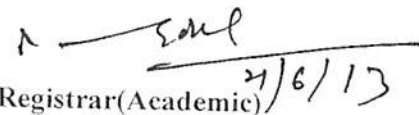

Yours faithfully,
