

Faculty of Education

PG Programmes

Programme Outcomes

PO1 Domain Knowledge: Students will acquire broad and deep knowledge of literature concerned. Students would be preparing for educational practices, practical practices in related professions and for educational and sports leadership in diverse context.

PO 2 Critical Thinking and Capacity Building: Students will have the abilities to think critically and rationally and would be acquire with the different type of capacity such as to handling the stage, presentation with confidence etc. through different types of seminar, extension lecture participation in intra-mural activities and participation in extracurricular activities and projects.

PO 3 Social Interactions: Students would be able to establish visible linkages in the field of physical education, education, sports and yoga with the different strata of the society as well as within the university.

PO 4 Ethics: Student will recognize different value systems including your own, understand the moral dimensions of your decision and accept responsibility for them.

PO5 All Around Development: Student will be able to learn how to resists unfavorable factors and working conditions, decreasing fatigue during professional activities and raising the quality of research. Developing the team work, sportsmanship, cooperation Student will be able to experience healthy social interactions through different activities such as participation in intra murals and co curricular activities which leads them towards cooperation through group activities and encouraging team works.

PO 6 Alternate to Handle the Modern Life Challenges: Students will be able to handle the stress due to over work and time bond activities. This can be handling through knowledge of yoga science which provides alternate method to handle modern life challenges.

PO 7 Self Directed and Lifelong Learning: Students will acquire the ability to engage in independent and lifelong learning in the broader context.

Faculty of Education

M.Phil

Programme Outcomes:

PO 1 Domain Knowledge: Students will acquire broader and deeper knowledge of concerned literature.

PO 2 Research Aptitude: Students will acquire the ability to think critically and analytically students will be able to understand specific research area in the concerned subject of their interest.

PO 3 Ethics: Students will set acquainted with the research ethics such as policies of research plagiarism, copyrights etc.

PO 4 Performance Enhancing: Students will got motivated for participating in different forms of physical activities. Student will acquire and apply moment concept to enhance performance and to develop and refined motor skills.

Faculty of Education

Ph.D

Programme Outcome

PO 1 Domain Knowledge: Students will acquire knowledge of specific area of research interest.

PO 2 Research Aptitude and Excellence: The Programme would make the students able to get engaged in innovative research that inform the work of scholars, practicionor and policy makers at regional, national and international level. Students will be able to understand the application to research methodology which will enable them to analyze research material critically.

PO 3 Enhance the Quality of Learning: Students will be able to write, design their work which will lead them for a research project proposal. Understanding of their subject area will make them perfect researcher in their perspective field.

PO 4 Ethics: Students will have the understanding of taking the help in their research from different permissible sources, and will take the review of the similar study of areas and analyze their view logically.