

Faculty of Social Sciences

PG Programme Outcomes

Students will be able to

- PO1. Gain in- depth knowledge and understanding of theory and application of the programmes.
- PO2. Have maximum flexibility and lateral mobility to choose their path and pace according to their aptitude and ability.
- PO3. Have leadership qualities such as problem solving, effective communication, public dealing, decision making, critical thinking and managing multiple tasks.
- PO4. Get equipped with the skills currently required to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of society.
- PO5. Have a more focused approach and complete the program in a shorter time without compromising the quality.
- PO6. Have the research aptitude and a habit of seeing things differently angle. Students would be able to participate in social awareness activities such as workshops/conferences, NGOs, awareness campaigns etc.

M.Phil./Ph.D Programme Outcomes

Students will be able to

- PO1. Have the spirit of enquiry, critical and ingenious thinking.
- PO2. Get trained in identifying, formulating, and executing research to arrive at substantiated conclusions in the language, idiom and flavour of the programme.
- PO3. Learn the art and science of literature search and review.
- PO4. Get educated in data management—collection (both primary and secondary sources), analysis, representation and interpretation of data with ethical issues in mind.
- PO5. Gain skill of precise, objective, ethical writing and its presentation.
- PO6. Provide solutions to the emergent problems of the society through scientific understanding and research.